Burglary Arrest

Who:

Antonio Frazier

What:

Arrested

Where:

MC Riley Sports Complex, 181 Goethe Road

When:

Wednesday, June 1, 2016

27-year-old Antonio Frazier was arrested last night on several charges, including burglary.

A witness called police around 6 p.m. to say she observed a subject, later identified as Frazier, take several items from a parked car at the MC Riley Sports Complex. Once police made contact with the owner of the vehicle, he said several cell phones, a wallet, and keys to his vehicle, a gun and ammunition were missing.

Police made contact with Frazier, who gave police permission to search his vehicle. During the search, police found the victim's wallet, a scale commonly used for weighing narcotics, marijuana and Xanax pills. The gun and ammunition were not found in Frazier's possession, but both were later located at a nearby gas station. The gun and ammunition were obtained by police and will be processed for evidence relating to this crime.

Frazier has an arrest history, involving possession of drugs, disturbance, domestic, and driving under suspended license. He is currently being held at the Beaufort County Detention Center.

Anyone with any information relating to this crime is asked to contact the Bluffton Police Investigations Division at 843-706-4560.
